EWI of Huntsville hosts its annual Executive Women of Tomorrow Conference (EWTC), which offers women in grades 8-12 from all over North Alabama the exciting opportunity to acquire the skills they need for planning their college educations and careers.

Currently there is no other program in the area that provides an opportunity like this for future women executives.

Conference Program

Learn how to set your GPS for college and career and pack your bag with the valuable tools needed to map out your road to success! Professional women executives, including representatives from Dale Carnegie Training and Junior Achievement, prepare you to get in the driver's seat and start cruisin'.

Looking for a free ride? Attendees will also learn how to seek out scholarships and financial aid to help finance their college education. So start your engines and sign up now...it's going to be an amazing ride!
