About SDPI:

Southern Digital Products, Inc. (SDPI) is a Value Added Reseller and Systems Integrator supplying Technology Advanced Audio/Video products and integration services to customers throughout the United States from its home office located in Huntsville, Alabama.

Southern Digital Products, Inc. specializes in Broadcast, Presentation, Video Conferencing and Distant Learning products, and the integration of all of these into a complete system. As more multi-media rooms require higher quality video presentations and capability, companies rely on SDPI to provide the expert knowledge that they have acquired from selling to the Broadcast Industry. Typical A/V companies do not carry the High-End Products that SDPI has been working with for nearly 15 years.

Southern Digital Products, Inc. has been providing product and services to the Broadcast TV, Cable TV, Post Production, Government, Educational, Corporate and Religious markets since 1993. Southern Digital Products, Inc. is classified as a “Woman-Owned Small Business Concern” and is the holder of GSA Contract # GS-35F-0378T.
