

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Tammie S. Hammons, Director of Development, 256-837-0332 ext. 17 or thammons@harrishomeforchildren.org

For Immediate Release

January 08, 2009

Harris Home for Children, Inc. Announces Board of Directors Officers and Members for 2009

(Huntsville, Alabama) - During the November 21st Board of Directors meeting, the Harris Home for Children, Inc. Board of Directors selected new officers for 2009. These individuals are leaders in their fields and in the community. They are also committed to helping the Harris Home for Children continue its mission. The newly elected board officers and members include:

- Thomas Busby, Board Chair; Vice President at ServisFirst Bank
- Douglas B. Hargett, Vice-Chair; Attorney with Maynard, Cooper, & Gale PC
- Dr. Katie W. Byrd, Secretary; Civic leader, retired educator/civil service professional
- Mary Turner, Treasurer; Vice President/Chief Audit Officer at Redstone Federal Credit Union
- Judy Hardin, Past Chair; Manager at Raytheon
- Jesse Nunn, Owner of Future Research Corporation
- Ray Greene, Director of Youth Services - City of Huntsville
- Jesse Johnson, Civic leader and Community Volunteer
- Tom Lawson, Director of Operations at Digium, Inc.
- Reggie McKenzie, Owner of TMTS, Inc.
- Dr. Leon Frazier, President & CEO of Properties and Travel Harvest, Inc.
- Sheila W. McDonald, Administrative Officer with NASA
- Lamont "Jack" Stewart, Civic leader

About Harris Home for Children, Inc.

The Harris Home for Children, Inc., located in Huntsville, Alabama, is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) agency licensed by the Alabama Department of Human Resources as a foster care institution and child placement agency. We are a United Way of Madison County partner agency that provides full-time residential foster care, therapeutic, and educational services for adolescents with histories of abuse, neglect, or abandonment. For more information visit www.harrishomeforchildren.org.

###