LOCAL BUILDER NAMED HBAA'S SHANNON LOWDER BUILDER OF THE YEAR

Montgomery—Todd Slyman of Slyman Construction Company, Inc. in Huntsville, has been named the Shannon Lowder Builder of the Year for 2009 by the Home Builders Association of Alabama (HBAA). He was presented the award at the HBAA's Annual Convention banquet on November 6, 2009 at the Grand Hotel in Point Clear, Alabama.

Slyman has been a member of the Huntsville/Madison County Builders Association (H/MCBA) since 1993. He has served as its Treasurer, 1st Vice President, and President. In 1999, he received the Jerry L. Siniard Builder of the Year award from the H/MCBA, and in 2008 was inducted into the H/MCBA Housing Hall of Fame. In 2009, he served as Treasurer for the Home Builders Association of Alabama.

The Shannon Lowder Builder of the Year award is designed to recognize builders who have demonstrated outstanding service to their local and state associations, their community and the building industry as a whole.

The Huntsville/Madison County Builders Association is a non-profit trade organization which has a membership of over 1,100 business firms employing 25,000+ persons in the Madison County area. Chartered in 1957, the association is a local chapter of the Home Builders Association of Alabama and the National Association of Home Builders. The organization's members consist of companies and individuals whose primary business is the home building industry.
