The Arts Council presents Huntsville's Exclusive Adventure in Art

On November 18, 2011, pARTy makes its return at 7:30 p.m. in the beautiful home of Linda & Gus Morard in The Ledges. The host home is transformed by the volunteer committee and TAC staff into a gallery showcasing over 200 works of art for purchase. This biennial fundraiser is Huntsville's most innovative art sale and last chance until 2013 to purchase the work of selected regional artists. This year's pARTy boasts a first-time ever silent auction of a textile piece by artist, Betty Grisham, an Alabama-native and lifetime patron, advocate, and volunteer for the arts.

All proceeds support the programs of The Arts Council, including new community-wide arts education initiatives and the Panoply Arts Festival. pARTy's 2011 sponsor adds, "Bill Penney Toyota is proud to sponsor pARTy this year – it is a perfect opportunity to give back to the community by promoting the arts and The Arts Council. The Penney family has always enjoyed this event because it exposes guests to local and regional artists and gives you a chance to tour one of Huntsville's lovely homes," says Zack Penney, General Manager of Bill Penney Toyota. "If you're looking for a small venue with fantastic artwork, music, food, drink and company – pARTy is the perfect event for art collectors who not only want to have a fun time, but also support a great organization," Penney added.
